

6516206013.txt

As a customer of a product I pay for, I expect services that are offered . These services are needed for my business, They are the road reports and weather services. As a long haul trucker, I depend on instant weather and road reports, XM offers these services. Local radio does not on a timely basis. XM is good the way it is and it is getting better.